FEATURED SPEAKERSStephen A Litzenberger, CPA

Managing Partner and CFO
BROADSTONE LLC

Steve is a CPA with approximately 13 years of professional experience, including a blend of public accounting, consulting, and large corporation experience. A 1996 Accounting and International Business graduate from Penn State University, Steve started his career at Wal-Mart where he worked in an Internal Audit capacity. His public accounting experience began at a Philadelphia based local CPA firm, where he supervised financial statement compilations, reviews and audits, pension plan audits, not-for-profit audits (including A-133 Gov't compliance), as well as tax return compilations.

Subsequently, Steve worked as an Audit Manager at both Ernst & Young Philadelphia and London. While in the UK, he advised internationally-based clients on SEC filings and Local GAAP / IFRS to US GAAP conversions. While working within E&Y London's Capital Markets Group, Steve was able to gain an overall knowledge of IFRS through both E&Y training and hands on experience. As a US GAAP expert, Steve advised internationally-based clients on SEC filings and Local GAAP / IFRS to US GAAP conversions in both the UK and in Switzerland.

In fall of 2007 Steve and his business partner Tim Hilferty, formed BROADSTONE LLC and in January of 2008 they went "live" with their service offerings. Steve's primary focus is developing BROADSTONE's internal methodology to converting companies from US GAAP to IFRS as well as leading other IFRS initiatives.

Steve's IFRS focus areas included:

- Financial Instruments (Hedging and Derivatives)
- Debt, Borrowing Costs, Provisions and Contingent Liabilities and Leases
- Cash Flow Statement Presentation
- Business Combinations
